

Coupling Joint

Wellsecure offers a wide range of casing joint. Joints are used to connect same or different threads. These are manufactured using high grade raw material that is procured from most reliable vendors. We also take care of the quality by conducting various quality checks on different parameters so that it is in accordance to the international quality standards.

Available sizes are 4-1/2" to 20". Any special sizes as per customer requirement.

